

shattered. The rebels had held the building for a week. Valuable law reference books and furniture were utilized to barricade windows, and through the interstices between the bulky volumes the rebels sniped without cessation, day and night, and were fired on in turn until they were compelled to evacuate the premises.

Houses all around were dented with bullet marks. Some of them were barricaded with thick oak planks which were marked with bullet holes. Over Wine Tavern Bridge there were similar scenes.

This morning the streets were full of curious persons who were glad to have the opportunity to be about after their long confinement, during which they were deprived of food until the authorities made provision for them. The supplies thus brought in were ample.

Down Corkhill and King Edward Streets strong guards of troops are still in evidence and every passerby is challenged.

The City Hall had been occupied for several days by the rebels, and even at this time snipers in houses in the vicinity were shooting at intervals.

SINN FEIN PRISONERS DEFIANT ON WAY TO PRISON.

As the correspondent approached the Castle a party of more than 100 captured members of the Sinn Fein marched by under escort toward Richmond Jail, where more than 700 are now held. Many of the men were in green uniforms. One wore the uniform of the Irish Volunteers and others were in civilian clothes. Numbers of them were wounded and suffering, but most of them held up their heads defiantly.

The soldiers escorting them were men who had fought all through the uprising and were even more bitter against their rebellious fellow countrymen than the troops brought over from England. This feeling seems to be shared by most of the population of Dublin.

St. Stephen's Green, where the rebels entrenched themselves as soon as the movement was begun on Monday, was almost deserted. As the British College and the old Irish Parliament quiet reigned. The officers' training corps, quartered in the college, had done much to suppress the uprising.

Great damage was done in Sackville Street and adjacent thoroughfares such as Middle Abbey, Abbey and Henry Streets. Only a few girders and window frames of some houses remain. Along the east side of Sackville Street, from Henry Street to O'Connell ridge the buildings are battered beyond recognition. The Post Office is merely a smouldering framework. The stone Young Men's Christian Association Building on the east side of the way, was perforated by eight shells, the Catholic Club by two and the blind institution by two.

LOOTING STOPPED, BUT IS QUICKLY STARTED BY TROOPS.

When the authorities gave orders that the people were to be allowed to enter the streets to-day some of the poor began looting. This was stopped at 2 o'clock, when the troops cleared the streets again and arrested every one who did not move promptly.

Gen. Maxwell, the British commander, announced to-night that the rebels were among the prisoners. He also stated reports from the country districts showed that everywhere quiet was being restored and that the rebels were coming in by groups to surrender, especially at Ashbourne and Enniscorthy.

The Post Office, which was in the hands of the rebels of the evening, when retaken was found to have been badly damaged by fire and shot.

Reports from Provincial Districts show that the greatest disturbance outside the city occurred in County Meath, where armed rebels in parties were still terrorizing the countryside yesterday. In other districts there were disorders at one place north of Dublin, a small detachment of the Royal Irish Constabulary, commanded by an inspector, was surrounded by rebels and reinforcements, it is not known whether the rebels held the policemen prisoners, but it is assumed they did. The authorities there wired to Dublin for reinforcements, which were despatched in armed automobiles. Over the rest of the country all was quiet, except at Enniscorthy and Wexford.

Many of the prisoners were captured red-handed with weapons. Hundreds of others are being detained on suspicion of complicity in the outbreak. One man was caught in a chimney from which he had been sniping for four days and nights. He held a position of trust in the office of a steamship company.

FRENCH REPULSE FIERCE NEW DRIVE ON VERDUN FRONT

Massed German Attack Surpasses in Violence That Which Opened New Offensive.

CUT DOWN IN ROWS.

French Fire Inflicts Tremendous Losses, Paris War Office Announces.

PARIS, May 1.—Following a violent bombardment, the Germans last night launched what the War Office described as a "powerful, close formation attack" against the trenches recently gained by the French north of Dead Man's Hill.

The assaults broke down under French fire, the enemy suffering enormous losses.

Another German attack on the Cumeres sector was also repulsed.

The German attack was delivered with more violence than were the blows last Friday that marked the resumption of the Crown Prince's drive on Verdun. Guns of all calibers first assailed the French positions northwest of Verdun, cannonading not only Dead Man's Hill but Hill 304 and even extending the bombardment east of the river to Vaux.

A curtain of French mitrailleuse fire swept the advancing Germans and mowed them down by the hundreds. The stroke against Cumeres was beaten back in similar fashion.

French air squadrons have been very active throughout the last thirty-six hours. One squadron early yesterday raided the Spontopol station near Thiaucourt. The railways at Etain and German bivouacs at Spincourt and other stations were targeted to liberal bomb showers.

The text of the communication follows:

"After a violent bombardment yesterday to the west of the River Meuse, the enemy, at the end of the day, delivered a powerful attack in dense formation upon the trenches captured by us to the north of Dead Man Hill. Our curtain of fire, together with the fire of our machine guns, caused enormous losses to the enemy, and all the assaults of the Germans were broken.

"To the north of Cumeres two German counter attacks delivered at about the same hour of the day upon the trench captured by us yesterday also were repulsed. In the course of the third endeavor at this point the enemy, who had been successful in gaining a footing in our lines, found it impossible to maintain his positions and he was at once driven back with heavy losses.

"There has been a violent and continued bombardment of Hill No. 304 and also in the region of Vaux. The night passed quietly in the Woivreux district.

"During the night of April 29-30 French aeroplanes squadrons threw down numerous projectiles on the railroad station and the supply and munitions station at Spontopol to the south of Thiaucourt; on the railroad line at Etain, on certain bivouacs near Spincourt, and on the railway stations at Apremont, Grand Pre, Challerange and Vouziers.

"During the course of these operations it was noticed that numerous fires broke out and a number of explosions were effected on the railroads."

BRITISH REPULSE GERMAN ATTACK AMID GAS FUMES.

LONDON, May 1.—More German attacks in considerable force against the British front in Flanders and much German activity at many points of the British line are reported in last night's official bulletin from Douglas Haig's headquarters, which reads:

"Last night the enemy showed some activity. Near Fraucourt he made an unsuccessful raid against our trenches after a mine explosion and a heavy bombardment.

"North of the Meuse-Wulverghem Road (about five miles south of Ypres) he liberated a gas about 1 in the morning on a front of about 2,000 yards (about a mile and a quarter) and followed this with an infantry attack, broken up by our artillery fire.

"At one point only did a hostile party enter our trenches, and this party was immediately bombed out.

"Combined with this attack the enemy, after a heavy bombardment, attempted a bomb attack near Holland-Schesschaar. This was equally unsuccessful against our machine gun fire and bombs. Several dead were left lying in front of our wire.

"In the Loos salient (north of Lens) there has been active mine warfare. To-day we have been effectively hostile works along the Ypres-Ploeghe Road."

BERLIN REPORTS HARD FIGHTING; NO CHANGE IN THE SITUATION.

BERLIN, May 1.—Pierce fighting occurred yesterday on Dead Man's Hill, northwest of Verdun, but the battle resulted in no change in the situation, the War Office announced this afternoon.

"On the western theatre the situation is generally unchanged," said the official statement. "Near Dead Man's Hill there was fierce fighting yesterday."

"German air squadrons bombarded extensively enemy's concentration points and magazines west of Verdun. East of Royon a French aeroplane was shot down in an air fight and its occupants killed.

"There is nothing to report from the eastern or Balkan theatres."

GERMANS ASSEMBLING BIG GUNS FOR ATTACK UPON RUSSIAN FRONT.

PETROGRAD, May 1.—Von Hindenburg is bringing up a large number of heavy guns against the Russian northern front, according to despatches received here to-day, forecasting a German offensive against General Kuropatkin's line within two weeks.

German aviation forces have been increased by the arrival of many Fokker fighting planes. The German object evidently is to drive back Russian aviators who cross their front on reconnaissance flights.

Weather conditions are becoming more favorable for fighting on the Riga-Dvinsk front.

100,000 WORKERS STRIKE; 2,500,000 QUIT IN UNITED STATES

(Continued from First Page.)

men, girls and children, started from Rutgers Square at 1 o'clock. It marched through streets densely packed with crowds, which were kept in order by Chief Inspector Schmittberger and 400 extra policemen. The parade was full of color furnished by the white and red costumes of the marching girls and by thousands of banniers.

Many of these demanded the ending of the war in Europe and not a few insisted the United States must never know war. Congressman Meyer of London was unable to be present. He was represented on the banniers by a score of quotations from his speeches. Max Pine was grand marshal.

The route was to Jackson Street, to Grand Street, to Suffolk Street, to Delancey Street, to Houston Street, to Second Avenue, to Fourth Street, to Washington Square and by way of Fifth Avenue to Fortieth Street to join the uptown division.

In contrast to most of the strikes of the last few years, this year's May Day revolt of labor is a "prosperity strike." The workers have become replete in the knowledge that there is more work to be done than there are men to do it. The demand is greater than the supply and the workers feel in a strategic position to demand what they feel is their fair share of prevailing prosperity.

May 1, labor's real annual opportunity for asserting its rights, as Labor Day is a day for celebrating the strength and dignity of the workers, has brought all the uncertainty to a climax.

Seven Villista Bandits Sentenced To Be Hanged in the Jail at Deming, N. M.

BANDITS CONDEMNED TO DIE AT DEMING, N. M. (INT. FILM SER.)

The seven prisoners were captured by American troops. They were tried, convicted and found guilty of being members of the band of raiders that surprised and attacked the Americans at Columbus, N. M., and killed several troopers and citizens. The photograph was made in Deming jail yard.

The industry hardest hit by to-day's strike is the cloak, suit and skirt trade. The Manufacturers' Association, anticipating to-day's demands, locked out their employees Friday. In retaliation, all workers, even those employed by persons not members of the association, have been called out, making 65,000 idle. Fifteen thousand painters quit, demanding $5 instead of $4 a day. So did 3,000 carpenters, 2,000 metal workers and about 1,000 marine engineers and firemen. Two thousand bakers were ordered to strike, but a settlement at a 6 o'clock this morning caused the decree to be cancelled.

The strike is first and foremost for universal recognition of the trades unions. With this demand are included demands for higher wages, if only by a shorter working day, and better working conditions—cleaner, lighter and safer shops.

The 2,000 striking carpenters are but 15 per cent of the men employed in the trade. The other 17,000 are working under the acceptance by their employers of a new scale of wages ranging from $5.50 for outside work in Manhattan to $4.50 for outside work in Richmond and shopwork in all boroughs.

At noon Jacob Hennefeld, general secretary of the local painters' organization, said that twenty-two of the largest employers had accepted the demands of the men and the smaller contractors were awaiting their turn in considerable numbers.

The strike of the 25,000 garment workers employed by other than members of the Manufacturers' Association struck to-day merely as a demonstration of loyalty to the 40,000 locked out by the association last week in spite of the offers of Mayor Mitchell, Jacob H. Schiff and others to serve as mediators. The real strike will not begin until Wednesday.

Ben Schlesinger, President of the International Garment Makers' Union, and Robert Bruere, brother of City Chamberlain Bruere, strike manager, said they had promises of support from Mr. Schiff and other prominent men, based on his hot attitude of the employers. Mr. Schiff said it was his first opportunity to express unqualified sympathy with a strike in this city.

George Gordon Battle, Chairman, and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, Vice-Chairman of the Committee for Industrial and Social Service for the unemployed, also wrote Mr. Bruere offering to establish shops for strikers to work at repairing garments sent in by strike sympathizers, which would afterwards be sold for the benefit of the strike fund.

The strike order for Wednesday morning directs all workers to repair to the nearest of the sixty-two halls which have been engaged to receive instructions. By a system arranged yesterday for assessments $120,000 is to be raised, making $500,000 available for benefit payments to strikers. Bruere said the strike could be maintained for seventeen weeks if necessary, and the first month's programme is arranged in every detail.

TAILOR IMMERMEN GIVES MEN DAY OFF WITH PAY.

Many custom tailors celebrated May Day by making it a paid holiday for the former strikers in their employ who have come back to work with the acceptance of all their demands.

"There was nothing to do but to give in to them," said Joseph Immerman of No. 41 Park Row. "The man who pays from $65 to $85 for a suit has a right to wear clothes made in a clean loft."

"Under the old system the high-priced custom tailor clothes have been made in tenement homes and under less sanitary conditions than the cheapest factory made ready made suits. More than that, the tailor lost time and so did the employer running back and forth between his home and the tailor's office, especially for customers who did not keep appointments. The pay now has fixed weekly wages at 10 per cent. increase. I don't know what others may do, but I have given my twenty-five men a day off with pay and I'm going to blow them to a dinner when they are through parading."

Abraham Shipplakoff, the Socialist Assemblyman from the Twenty-third Brooklyn District, after leading a division of the Manhattan parade, went to Brownsville and with Samuel Spivack headed a parade of 30,000 garment workers, while 140 delegates met at the Labor Lyceum, at Sackman Street and Liberty Avenue, to work out strike plans.

ANARCHIST ARRESTED FOR UNFURLING BLACK FLAG.

A threatened disturbance by avowed Anarchists flamed under aggressive watchful waiting by Inspector Dwyer and Capt. Haupt of the Elizabeth Street Station on guard in Columbus Park at Mulberry Bend. The Anarchists had no permit for the Park Department. They were told to meet, if they wished, at Park and Mulberry Streets, but to keep order. Nicola Campanale unfurled a black flag with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt to parade to Union Square to raid the laborer's headquarters, he was arrested. He was charged with "Anarchy" across its face in red letters. The police rushed him and the flag was furled. Later when Pietro Allegro returned from Police Headquarters with the news of a police promise to suppress any attempt